Best Paper Award

The EDOC 2005 Best Paper Award honors the author(s) of the best paper presented at the conference, in terms of general quality, originality, subject matter and contribution. The jury, consisting of the Program Co-chairs and the Steering Committee Chair, considered 10 papers that were nominated for the best paper award, based on the outcome of the triple peer review process applied to all EDOC 2005 conference papers.

The EDOC 2005 Best Paper Award is assigned to:

Learning, Planning, and the Lifecycle of Workflow Management Diogo Ferreira and Hugo Ferreira

This paper and the other nominated papers will be considered for publication in the International Journal of Cooperative Information Systems (IJCIS) in 2006.

Program Co-chair Patrick Hung presents the EDOC 2005 Best Paper Award to Diogo Ferreira
